66 Businesses to Recruit for Open Positions at Career Conference This Week

January 12, 2015 - Rochester, NY – RochesterWorks! has teamed up with Monroe Community College, the New York State Department of Labor, and WHEC-TV 10 to connect local job seekers to local jobs.

The 7th Annual Greater Rochester Career Conference and Job Fair will be held on Wednesday, January 14, from 9:00 am to 3:00 pm. This event, which attracted over 1,300 job seekers in 2014, will take place at Monroe Community College in the R. Thomas Flynn Campus Center and is free and open to the public.

“The Annual Career Conference and Job Fair is an exciting event for our community since it allows job seekers an opportunity to network and communicate with local businesses about their job openings. This event is a prime example of a community workforce development partnership that is valuable in promoting growth and stability in our local economy.”
–Peter Pecor, RochesterWorks!

At the event job seekers will learn about job opportunities at 66 local businesses including Verizon Wireless, Rochester Regional Health System, Wegmans, and St. John Fisher College. The day will also feature a panel on “Becoming the Candidate of Choice” and a series of workshops on topics including labor market trends, interviewing skills, and tips for managing finances while searching for work.

Job seekers planning to attend the event can register online and view the list of businesses, parking information, and workshop topics at <http://2015jobseeker.eventbrite.com>. They can also review tips for attending a career fair at www.rochesterworks.wordpress.com.
