

175 Norman Street
Rochester, NY 14613
(585) 458-4869
mdesignvehicles.com

JOB DESCRIPTION

Fabricator /Welder – Assist in the building of food trucks, disaster relief vehicles, and other custom built vehicles. A fabricator must be well rounded in his/her skills.

Experience with TIG and MIG welding.

Work with aluminum, stainless steel, and other metal materials. Be able to cut, bend, and manipulate these materials to create doors, windows, and other openings in the body of truck. Be able to cut, bend, and manipulate these materials to create shelving, tables, trim, and other products to complete a project.

Carpentry – basic carpentry skills required. Knowledge of measuring and cutting to specifications.

Basic Construction – must have knowledge of how things are built and put together. A basic understanding of construction, and the elements of construction is required.

Shop maintenance/cleaning – assist in maintaining the cleanliness of the shop during work, and before leaving for the day.

Proper use of a tape measure.

Use Power Tools – table saw, screw gun, hand saw, chop saw, grinder, and any other tools needed to complete a project.

Use metal fabrication equipment – Brake, shear and band saw.

Maintain efficiency of equipment and tools.

Use proper personal protective equipment, and safety procedures when working in the shop.

Problem solve and work independently when necessary.

To apply: kim@mdesigntrucks.com