

At the Wegmans Bakeshop, employees work to ensure the delicious baked goods our customers have come to know and love are available in our stores. As a Production team member in this manufacturing facility, you will have the opportunity to perform a variety of functions across multiple areas – all crucial to the proper production of baked goods and timely delivery to our stores. From fresh breads and elegant patisserie products your contributions will be directly responsible for bringing baked goods to the shelves at Wegmans.

I will add value by

- Providing incredible service to Wegmans stores by filling store orders and ensuring the highest quality baked goods are made available for customers to enjoy
- Performing a variety of tasks as determined by Bakeshop area, including (but not limited to) placing in and removing items from ovens, packaging products, maintaining a consistent final product, properly icing and filling products, etc.
- Working as part of the Bakeshop team; understanding the importance of each task and the role it plays in the process of getting products to stores

Work environment:

- Will be required to spend the majority of time on his or her feet as work typically includes prolonged standing and walking in a fast-paced environment
- Typical motions include repetitive hand and arm movements, reaching, lifting, pushing, pulling and bending
- Specific work conditions including temperatures, equipment and other physical demands (including weight lifting requirements) will be determined based on the area of the Bakeshop where work is performed
- May be exposed to various allergens and climate changes

What abilities I must bring to the table to be considered:

- Provide incredible service and gain the trust and respect of others by providing accurate information and responding to situations in a timely manner, listening carefully and acting with customers in mind
- Possess teamwork and diversity awareness by listening to others' points of view and recognizing and appreciating differences
- Properly handle, prepare, transport and store products; ensuring food and human safety practices are strictly adhered to
- Possess organizational skills, prioritizing requests and department activities while managing interruptions and attending to details to complete tasks within deadlines
- Exhibit adaptability when faced with changes in the workplace, remaining positive, calm and focused when under pressure or when dealing with ambiguous situations
- Ability to multi-task and react to a variety of situations at one time
- Able to problem solve, anticipating, analyzing, and identifying problems, responding quickly when situations arise and preventing problems when possible

What will set me apart from other candidates:

- Experience working in a bakery, food manufacturing or distribution facility

Other:

• Employment at Wegmans maybe contingent upon your completion and our evaluation of a physical, drug screen and/or criminal background check.
